

Angela López Molina

Angela López Molina is partner in charge of the DS office in Madrid, where she advises clients on international business issues, corporate law and construction and large infrastructure projects. A member of the Madrid Bar, she holds a post-graduate diploma in International and EU Law from the University of Louvain-la-Neuve.

Angela has worked for almost 15 years as a lawyer in Madrid and in Shanghai; she has also been International Legal Director of a large Infrastructure Multinational Group. Her areas of experience include complex matters related to financial, legal compliance, administrative and foreign direct investment issues mainly in China, Middle East, India and LATAM.

Fluent in 5 languages, Angela is an expert in drafting and negotiating all kinds of contracts worldwide with multinational companies.

Angela is a recognised player in international matters. In 2017, she was awarded with a "40 under Forty" prize, as one of the 40 best lawyers under 40 years old in Spain and Portugal, issued by Iberian Lawyer. She has also been included in the "General Counsel Powerlist: Iberia Teams" and in the "Powerlist of the Most influential General Counsels in Iberia", issued by Legal 500.