President's letter

Dear members,

After my re-election last June as president of our Chamber, it is an honor to once again be the prologue of our yearbook. Once again this annual We will also continue to highlight the great work event allows me to look back and review the and leadership of Spanish companies and activity of our Chamber over the last 12 months. professionals. In 2024 we recognized Sener, a And I do so once again this year with satisfaction company unknown to the general public, but a and pride in the work done by our team, which world leader in the fields of energy, space and last year organized 11 training sessions, 12 trade defense. missions and 50 events with a total of around 3,100 participants.

All this has been reflected in the continued confidence of our member companies, which year after year renew their membership, and in the incorporation of new companies. We now have 346 members, an increase of almost 10% over the previous year. All this despite a challenging economic environment. As is the geopolitical environment. The arrival of Trump in the White House has not only brought an additional dose of uncertainty, but also chaos.

In spite of the difficulties, 2025 looks exciting House has not only brought an additional dose of and with the ambition that our Chamber will uncertainty, but also chaos. continue to grow. The brand new headquarters, to which we will move this spring, should help in The trade war that has begun, which is no less this regard. Growth not seen as an end in itself worrying for being expected, will negatively but as a means to continue facilitating trade and affect our companies. At times like these, investment between Spain and Belux. And we will chamber entities are more necessary than ever continue to do so, as has been the case so far, to help companies, especially SMEs, to weather in close collaboration with our embassies and the storm and navigate the extremely turbulent ambassadors in both countries, as well as with waters that international trade is today. And also the Economic and Commercial Office and the to identify and land new opportunities, which will Permanent Representation, convinced that only also arise. unity and good coordination is strength.

Strong institutions are also necessary. The recent formation of new governments in Luxembourg and Belgium is good news, as is the formation of new regional governments, which are essential in a state as decentralized as Belgium. The establishment of channels of dialogue with the new governments that can benefit Spanish companies over the next five years will be a priority for our Chamber. All this in the context of a new institutional cycle within the European Union.

We will also continue to promote opportunities for Spanish professionals that will provide our companies with better access to the raw material for business success: talent. A good example is the training program we launched in 2024 in Luxembourg in the financial sector, which will be continued in September 2025 in an even more ambitious format.

Good reading!

In addition, the usual line of breakfast-debates with professionals from the European institutions continued with several events.

"Introduction to the Luxembourg financial market"

From 1 to 11 October, the Official Spanish Chamber of Commerce in Belgium and Luxembourg held the first edition of the training programme 'Introduction to the Luxembourg financial market', with the aim of providing participants with the necessary skills to work in the financial sector of the Grand Duchy.

During the two-week course, participants were able to deepen their understanding of the fundamental principles of finance, expanding their previous knowledge as graduates in Economics, Finance, Business Administration, Political Science or Law with a specialisation in economics.

The main added value of the programme lies in the emphasis it places on adapting these contents to the framework of the Luxembourg industry.

To this end, the Chamber put together an agenda of master classes given by professional experts from renowned companies in the sector, such as Anidris Academy, Bank Julius Baer, Caceis, CMS Luxembourg, Deloitte Luxembourg, DLA Piper Luxembourg, EY Luxembourg, Luxembourg for Finance, PwC Luxembourg and The LHoFT.

After the training course, and after having passed the corresponding selection processes, the young graduates were given a six-month paid contract in one of the companies collaborating in the programme, so that they could put into practice what they had learned during the course.

The Chamber is currently immersed in the organisation of the second edition of the programme, which will take place in September 2025.

Commercial activities

In 2024, the Chamber organised a multi-sectoral trade mission, in collaboration with the Madrid Chamber of Commerce. Under this initiative, nine producer companies travelled to Belgium and Luxembourg to promote and sell their products and services in the country. The companies were from the food sector, the project engineering sector, the manufacturing industry and the agricultural sector.

On the other hand, the Chamber collaborated again in a commercial action with the Chamber of Commerce of Cantabria to look for host companies for Vocational Training students to develop their Erasmus+ internships in BeNeLux.

Similarly, collaboration was carried out with the Teruel Chamber of Commerce in a reverse mission, through which the Chamber contacted distributors and importers interested in the province's gastronomic products.

In addition, an agenda of meetings was planned in Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands for a Spanish company producing plastics used in the food industry. A second agenda of meetings was also organised in Belgium for a temporary employment company interested in posting workers from Spain to companies in the agricultural and wine sector, mainly.

Finally, a Belgian company, leader in biomechanical innovation in podiatry, has been supported in its expansion in Spain by putting them in contact with both insole manufacturing companies and renowned clinics in the Spanish market.

COMPANY of the YEAR AWARD

ື ອີ ອີ Sener

Sener Aerospace & Defense

The Official Spanish Chamber of Commerce in Belgium and Luxembourg recognised, in the X Edition of its 'Company of the Year' awards, Sener's cutting-edge work in the aerospace and defense sector.

Sener, founded in 1956 as the first Spanish engineering company registered in Spain, today has approximately 4,000 professionals on five continents, offices in 18 countries and production centres for the aerospace and defense market in Spain and Poland. In addition to these markets, Sener has a recognised track record in energy, infrastructures and mobility and data centres.

Since the opening of its Brussels office in 2019, Sener has actively collaborated with around 30 Belgian companies on 18 European defense projects and 12 European space projects. Examples of these successes include Sener's leadership in projects such as HYDEF, for the research of a hypersonic missile interceptor system, or VLEO, for the development of very low orbit satellites.

Andrés Sendagorta, President of Sener, said: 'We are grateful to the Chamber for this award, as well as to all the Spanish authorities in Brussels who have facilitated our local establishment. We will continue to work to be a reference in Europe and we foresee that our representative office in Brussels will grow progressively, reinforcing our collaboration with the Belgian and Luxembourg industry'.

Assemblies

On 24 June, the Official Spanish Chamber of Commerce in Belgium and Luxembourg held its Ordinary General Assembly of 2024 at the headquarters of the Instituto Cervantes in Brussels.

Among the topics discussed, the vice-president Abelardo García reviewed the accounting situation of the Chamber and described the financial situation of the entity as 'very good', with a 7% economic growth in income.

There was also a partial renewal of the Board of Directors, with seven renewals of memberships, including three members of the Management Committee of the Chamber. The event was attended by the Spanish Ambassador to Belgium, Alberto Antón Cortés, and the Economic and Commercial Counsellor, María Ortíz.

At the end of the year, an Extraordinary General Assembly was held in Luxembourg on 9 December. It was attended by a large number of members, as well as the Spanish Ambassador in Luxembourg, José María Rodríguez Coso.

The event served to approve a 'moderately optimistic' budget for 2025, to review the activity carried out in 2024 and to present the cheque for the proceeds of the solidarity dinner of 4 December to Caritas Valencia to help the victims of the Dana floods.

Association of Official Spanish Chambers of Commerce in Europe, Africa, Asia and Oceania

The Federation of Official Spanish Chambers of Commerce in Europe, Africa, Asia and Oceania (FEDECOM) is an international non-profit association that currently brings together the 23 Official Spanish Chambers of Commerce, recognised by the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Enterprise and established in Europe, Africa, Asia and Oceania.

FEDECOM's main mission consists of defending the general interests of its members, identifying business opportunities, standardising services, liaising with the supervisory authority and the Spanish Chamber of Commerce, as well as relations with international institutions.

- CAMACOES Assembly 2024 -

On 8 and 9 July, the Chamber took part in the meeting of the 44 Official Spanish Chambers of Commerce abroad in Madrid, within the framework of the CAMACOES Assembly, which also brought together the Chambers belonging to FEDECOM and FECECA (Federation of Official Chambers of Commerce in America).

During these working days, conferences were held such as the 'Presentation of the Network Projects and Services (Barometers)', the round table entitled 'How to reinforce synergies and interaction in the Cameral Network' or a presentation on associations and organisations of the Chambers of Commerce.

The Secretary of State for Trade, Amparo López Senovilla, highlighted the role of CAMACOES as a support network for internationalisation and its work as a 'fundamental instrument' for accompanying companies and promoting their growth.

WLead

WLead was a project, co-funded by the Erasmus+ programme of the European Union, that aimed to promote the acquisition and improvement of professional and personal skills and competences of entrepreneurial, employed and unemployed women seeking to boost their professional career.

The WLead project developed, over its 2-year duration, a package of training tools for women that is accessible through an e-learning platform to respond to the special needs most in demand by women today.

In addition, three face-to-face training seminars were held in Belgium, Luxembourg and Spain to put into practice the tools previously developed and several mentoring meetings will be held between the participating women.

Finally, several events took place at national level to disseminate the results of this initiative that provided women with the skills they need to be professional leaders in a new digital era.

DG VET

DG VET is a European project co-funded by the Erasmus+ programme and managed by the Official Spanish Chamber of Commerce in Belgium and Luxembourg.

It is a 24-month project that aims to develop an innovative methodology and training material, accompanied by an e-learning platform to support the development of digital and green skills required by the labour market, especially in agriculture. In this way it aims to improve the employability of economically inactive and uneducated rural youth, with an emphasis on women between 18 and 30 years old.

DG VET partners recognise the important contribution of the digital and green economy (DaGE) sectors in creating employment opportunities for young people living in rural areas. In addition, it will seek to address:

- The phenomenon of the digital gap: the difference between those living in rural areas and those living in cities in terms of access to ICT.
- The lack of political commitment in promoting and implementing youth-friendly VET programmes.

PROGRAMMES

• The skills mismatch between job requirements and the skills of workers in the DaGE sectors.
