

Eurostars Hotels commemorates World Book Day and the 400th anniversary of Miguel De Cervantes and in its international hotels

Within the framework of World Book Day on Thursday 21 April at 7:30 PM at the Eurostars Montgomery Hotel.

The hotels participating in this cultural initiative of the Eurostars Hotels are Eurostars Berlin Luxury Class (Berlin), the Eurostars Grand Central Hotel 4 (Munich), Eurostars Hotel Excelsior Luxury Class (Naples), Eurostars Das Letras 5 (Lisbon), Eurostars Thalia 5 (Prague), and the Eurostars Montgomery 5 (Brussels). Every hotel will organize a different event by giving a leading role to the most typical products of Spanish gastronomy by linking them with the literary tour of the novelist, poet and playwright, Miguel de Cervantes, who is universally recognized for his work Don Quijote de la Mancha.

This activity is set within the context of a series of special events that will be organized by the Eurostars Hotels chain during April in all of its hotels. The activities focus on uniting gastronomy with some of the most relevant literary works and authors of the country. Furthermore, it concerns another action organized by the chain with the aim of boosting its cultural uniqueness, which is manifested by the organization of different narrative and photography prizes as well as the accommodation of exhibitions of young artists at the facilities of its hotels.
